Everything Changes

Verse 1:

The spring rain was falling ... when you left me.
The dying breath of winter ... sent a chill through me.
But soon the summer sun ... came shining through.
Everything changes ... but my love for you.

Verse 2:

Flowers begin ... to blossom again.
Grassy fields turn green ... with the envy of them.
Nature has seen it ... the whole world knew.
Everything changes ... but my love for you.

Verse 3:

In time color faded ... from all the trees.
Flowers wilted like the love ... you had for me.
Leaves lay there dying ... in the morning dew.
Everything changes ... but my love for you.

Verse 4:

And now I stand ... in the autumn of my life.
Winter wind on my face ... cutting like a knife.
The days I have left ... are but a precious few.
Everything changes ... but my love for you.
