Opener, Middle Break, Ending:

Four ladies chain go straight, straight across and then you roll away and circle left go 'round Four ladies roll away gonna circle left and then left allemande and weave that ring, Pony Boy, Pony Boy get a going, swing the girl and you promenade.

 Though your gal misbehaves while you're fighting off the braves - remember the mail must go through.

Figure:

Heads square through four hands around you go, around that corner lady do-sa-do you swing through and then the boys run to the right, you bend that line and do the right and left through, pass the ocean and then boys cross fold and swing, swing the corner girl and promenade, though your gal misbehaves while you're fighting off the braves - remember the mail must go through.

 Though your gal she may spoon with some puncher 'neath the moon, remember the mail must go through.

 Pack your bronk, say good by to the apple of your eye . . .
