

TAR119 Rosalia Ed Shepley

OPENER - MIDDLE BREAK - CLOSER

Sides face, grand square

The people were clapping their hands to the beat Of the music

When in the front door walked the prettiest girl

I have seen allemande and weave

Her eyes black as coal, seemed to dance in the light

Of the lantern swing and promenade

I asked who she was and she said Rosalia

Was her name

FIGURE

Heads promenade travel halfway round there

You'll square thru

Square thru three, that corner lady swing

Promenade her

Just one more dance and I said to myself

I must go

TAG: Swing her

I hope that someday I will see Rosalia again
